Any applicant who fulfils the conditions stipulated in these Regulations is eligible to seek admission to the Ph.D. Programme:

- 2.1 Candidates who have completed: A 1-year/2-semester master's degree programme after a 4-year/8-semester bachelor's degree programme or a 2-year/4-semester master's degree programme after a 3-year bachelor's degree programme or qualifications declared equivalent to the master's degree by the corresponding statutory regulatory body, with at least 55% marks in aggregate or its equivalent grade in a point scale wherever grading system is followed

OR

Candidates who have equivalent qualification from a foreign educational institution accredited by an assessment and accreditation agency which is approved, recognized or authorized by an authority, established or incorporated under a law in its home country or any other statutory authority in that country to assess, accredit or assure quality and standards of the educational institution.

- 2.2 Applicants who hold a Postgraduate Degree from an approved University/Institutions or a Course recognized by the UGC/AICTE/DEC and MHRD, Government of India and those with a Postgraduate Degree or a Professional degree/course like CA/CS/ICWA are considered to be equivalent to an approved master degree programme in the concerned subject. However, he/she has to appear in the Ph.D. Entrance Test in the discipline concerned.
- 2.3 A relaxation of 5% marks or its equivalent grade may be allowed for those belonging to SC/ST/OBC (non-creamy layer)/Differently-Abled, Economically Weaker Section (EWS) and other categories of candidates as per the decision of the Commission from time to time.

Provided that a candidate seeking admission after a 4-year/8-semester bachelor's degree programme should have a minimum of 75% marks in aggregate or its equivalent grade on a point scale wherever the grading system is followed. A relaxation of 5% marks or its equivalent grade may be allowed for those belonging to SC/ST/OBC (non-creamy layer)/Differently-Abled, Economically Weaker Section (EWS) and other categories of candidates as per the decision of the Commission from time to time. Such students having Honours Degree from other recognised Universities shall be eligible for admission to Ph.D. Programme of the University provided the fourth year of graduation is with research and is in line with NEP 2020.

- 2.4 Candidates who have completed the M.Phil. programme with at least 55% marks in aggregate or its equivalent grade in a point scale wherever grading system is followed or equivalent qualification from a foreign educational institution accredited by an assessment and accreditation agency which is approved, recognized or authorized by an authority, established or incorporated under a law in its home country or any other statutory authority in that country to assess, accredit or assure quality and standards of educational institutions, shall be eligible for admission to the Ph.D. programme. A relaxation of 5% marks or its equivalent grade may be allowed for those belonging to SC/ST/OBC (non-creamy layer)/Differently-Abled, Economically Weaker Section (EWS) and other categories of candidates as per the decision of the Commission from time to time.

2.5 There shall be a special provision of supernumerary Ph.D. seats not exceeding 10% of the total seats available in a subject, if there are no vacant seats available with the eligible supervisors in the subject concerned, to the in-service teachers for encouraging the faculty members of colleges and Universities for getting a Ph.D. degree.

2.6 (For admission to Multidisciplinary Subjects)

A Candidate, eligible for admission to Ph.D. as per R.Ph.D. 2.1 above, can apply for Multidisciplinary subjects. Minimum 10% seats should be reserved in this category. In case of unavailability of the candidate/s the vacant seat may be transferred to regular seats.

In this case, he/she has to choose two subjects, one of his/her specialization and other subjects of his/her interest in which Multidisciplinary research is to be carried out. In the case of multidisciplinary research, the DRAC will allocate more than one guide as per the need of the topic wherein one should be the guide and the other/s would act as co-guide/s.

The DRAC in such a case will be a joint DRAC consisting of members from both subjects.

R. Ph.D. 3. Duration of Ph.D. Programme:

3.1 Full-time Ph.D. Programme shall be for a minimum duration of three years, and a maximum of six years from the date of registration. Part-time Ph.D. Programme shall be for a minimum duration of three and a half years including course work and a maximum of seven years from the date of registration.

3.2 A full-time registered Ph.D. Candidate shall be allowed to submit Ph.D. synopsis after completion of a minimum period of four terms / two years (after registration for Ph.D.) and a part-time candidate shall be allowed to submit a synopsis after completion of six terms / three years (after registration for Ph.D.). However, submission of the thesis shall be allowed as per the minimum duration of the Ph.D. programme specified in R. Ph. D 3.1, and the candidate must submit the thesis within one year of submitting the synopsis. Part-time students should have adequate contacts/interactions with the guide and the research group related to research work. The guide and the Head of the concern department should certify the same.

3.3 Only a one-year Extension beyond the allowed one-year period post-submission of the synopsis may be given for the submission of the thesis if recommended by the DRAC and approved by the Vice-Chancellor. Beyond this, no further extension is permissible in any case. An undertaking shall be taken from the candidate in the format provided by the University.

3.4 A maximum of an additional two (2) years can be given through a process of re-registration as per the Statute/Ordinance of the Higher Educational Institution concerned; provided, however, that the total period for completion of a Ph.D. programme should not exceed eight (8) years from the date of registration in the Ph.D. programme.

- 3.5 Provided further that, female Ph.D. scholars and Persons with Disabilities (having more than 40% disability) may be allowed an additional relaxation of two (2) years; however, the total period for completion of a Ph.D. programme in such cases should not exceed ten (10) years from the date of registration in the Ph.D. programme.
- 3.6 In addition, women candidates may be provided Maternity Leave/Child Care Leave once in the entire duration of their Ph.D. for up to 240 days.

R. Ph.D. 4. Procedure for Admission:

- 4.1 The DRAC for the concerned subject shall admit Ph.D. scholars as per the eligibility criteria for admission to Ph. D programme (R.Ph.D. 2). Admissions shall be offered twice preferably in July/August and December/January every year in the available subject discipline.
- 4.2 Applicants who have qualified UGC-NET/NET-JRF/UGC-CSIR/NET/GSLET/DBT/GATE/GPAT/ICAR/INSPIRE fellowship/Teacher fellowship in the respective faculty as per the UGC Rules and Regulations in force shall be exempted from the Ph.D. Entrance Test.
- 4.3 University P. G. Departments/ National or State level research Institutions having made an MOU with the University/P. G. Centres /Colleges affiliated to Sardar Patel University which are allowed to conduct Ph.D. Programme shall:
 - 4.3.1 decide on a session basis through their DRAC a predetermined and manageable number of Ph.D. scholars to be admitted depending on the number of available Ph.D. Guides and other academic and physical facilities available, keeping in mind the norms regarding the scholar-teacher ratio, laboratory, library and other such facilities;
 - 4.3.2 maintain a list of Ph.D. supervisors (specifying the name of the supervisor, his or her designation, and the department/school/centre), along with the details of Ph.D. scholars (specifying the name of the registered Ph.D. scholar, the topic of his/her research and the date of admission) admitted under them on the website of the institution and update this list every academic year.
 - 4.3.3 notify the number of seats for admission, subject/discipline-wise distribution of available seats, criteria for admission, the procedure for admission, examination centre(s) where entrance test(s) shall be conducted and all other relevant information for the benefit of the candidates well in advance on the University website and through advertisement in at least two (2) National newspapers, of which at least one (1) shall be in the regional language,;
- 4.4 The admission shall be based on the criteria notified by the University, keeping in view the guidelines/norms in this regard issued by the UGC and other concerned statutory bodies, and taking into account the reservation policy of the Central/State Government from time to time.
- 4.5 The DRAC of the respective subjects shall admit applicants for admission through a two-stage process through an entrance test and counselling with the allocation of seats as per guidelines given below:
 - 4.5.1 Allocation of Seats:
 - a) All available seats for Ph.D. admissions in a P.G. Department/recognised Institute/college shall be distributed into two distinct groups in the following manner and proportion:
50% for the candidates having UGC-NET/NET-JRF/UGC-CSIR-NET/GSLET/GATE/GPAT/ICAR/INSPIRE-fellowship/Teacher-fellowship (whose validity will be as per the validity of respective examinations), and the remaining 50% for the candidates qualified through Ph.D. Entrance Test.
 - b) In case the number of candidates in above allocations is more in number, or are unavailable in one/more groups as made in (a) above, the order of preference in admission of students shall be on merit as follows: (i) NETJRF; (ii) NET-L; (iii) SLET; and (iv) GATE/JEST. The merit list shall be based on ranks in case of applicants with NET/SLET; and percentage of marks in case of those with GATE/JEST and who have passed the Ph.D. Entrance Test.

- c) In case a seat/s in any of the groups under (a) above remains vacant, these shall be filled with applicants from the other group.

4.5.2 Ph.D. Entrance Test

4.5.2.1 An entrance test at the first stage with qualifying marks of 50%. A relaxation of 5% marks will be given to SC/ST/OBC (non-creamy layer)/EWS category/ differently-abled candidates on the production of relevant valid documents.

4.5.2.2 The syllabus of the Entrance Test shall cover (a) research methodology and the contents in the respective subject discipline, and (b) shall be at par with the NET syllabus/the syllabus prescribed at the level of Master's degree in the subject discipline concerned of Sardar Patel University.

4.5.2.3 The syllabus for the Ph.D. Entrance Test in which NET is not conducted shall be prepared by the DRAC and shall cover the contents of the core courses only offered in the respective subject discipline at the Master's level at Sardar Patel University. The University shall upload it on the website.

4.5.2.4 A committee of examiners constituted from time to time by the Hon. Vice Chancellor which may include Professors of the Department and/or external subject expert shall set the question paper for the Entrance Test, provide solutions to the test paper and assess the answer sheets.

4.5.2.5 The Entrance Test shall be conducted by the University. A certificate showing marks obtained shall be issued by the University to the Entrance Test-qualified candidates.

4.5.2.6 The Entrance Test shall be of 100 marks and 3 hours duration. The format of the Entrance Test Paper shall be as follows:

Section-I 40 marks: 40 objective type multiple choice questions related to the subject of one mark each.

Section-II 10 marks: 10 objective type questions of one mark each, covering general knowledge in the subject, components of research methodology and IKS.

Section-III 30 marks: Six out of ten questions of five marks each which may include sub-questions also.

Section-IV 20 marks: Two out of six questions of ten marks each which may include sub-questions also.

The question paper-cum-answer book shall contain questions with adequate space provided under each of the test items for candidates to write answers to the questions.

4.5.2.7 The list of entrance-qualified candidates shall be prepared by the University as per merit and shall be uploaded on the University website. The fulfilment of this qualification alone shall not be a secured admission to the Ph.D. programme.

- 4.5.2.8 The eligibility of the candidate who qualified the Entrance Test is forever. However, he/she has to apply for admission whenever he/she desires.

4.5.3 Ph.D. Counselling

- 4.5.3.1 At the second stage, an interview during the counselling for admission shall be arranged by DRAC. The candidate is required to discuss his/her research interest/area through a presentation before DRAC. The Dean of the respective faculty and also all the recognised Ph.D. guides in the respective subject shall be invited during the counselling.
- 4.5.3.2 The interview during the counselling for admission shall also consider the following aspects, viz. whether: (a) the candidate possesses the competence for the proposed research; (b) the research work can be suitably undertaken at the University P. G. Department/Research Institution/Colleges (c) the proposed area of research can contribute to new/additional knowledge etc.
- 4.5.3.3 Admissions for Ph.D. shall be finalized after an interview during the counselling for admission with the Department Research Advisory Committee, including the research Guide, based on a set of criteria including research area, availability of vacancy and a Research Guide in a proposed subject area, a good research proposal and presentation.
- 4.5.3.4 For the selection of candidates from the Entrance Test category, a weightage of 70% to the Entrance Test and 30% to the performance in the interview/ viva-voce/presentation during the counselling shall be adopted. The University shall provide the score of the Entrance Test at the time of each counselling process. The same weightage shall be followed in the case of NET/SLET qualified candidates also. However, wherever, the score of such exam is not available, the candidates shall be selected based on their performance during the counselling interview.
- 4.6 In case a candidate seeks admission for Ph.D. in a subject other than the one offered by him/her at the Master's degree but in the same faculty, he/she may be admitted to Ph.D. programme provided the DRAC in the subject of research, with a specially invited expert in the subject area of the candidate's Master's degree approves it.
- 4.7 A candidate seeking admission to Ph.D. in a subject falling in a faculty other than the faculty in which he/she had obtained his/her Master's degree may be considered for admission to Ph.D., provided a Special committee consisting of (a) Deans of the two faculties involved; (b) The DRAC of the subject concerned in which the admission is being sought; (c) proposed Research Guide; and (d) a subject expert appointed by the Vice Chancellor recommends for admission of an applicant who desires to undertake interdisciplinary research leading to Ph.D. In case of candidate having M.Phil. Degree, the committee shall decide whether he/she would need to do course work or be given exemption from it.
- 4.8 A full-time employed candidate will be admitted as a part-time Research Scholar upon the production of a "No Objection Certificate" from the employer from the appropriate authority in the organization where the candidate is employed. The certificate should clearly state the following:
- i. The candidate is permitted to pursue studies on a part-time basis.
 - ii. His/her official duties permit him/her to devote sufficient time for research.

iii. If required, he/she will be relieved from the duty to complete the course work.

However, a part-time or temporarily employed candidate shall be considered for admission as a Part-time scholar through the recommendation of DRAC.

In case of a change in employment, a fresh NOC will be required.

- 4.9 The DRAC in the concerned subject shall submit the list of admitted candidates along with the name of allocated Ph.D. Guides to the University for admission followed by registration to the pre-Ph.D. course work within one month from the date of counselling. The admission and allotment of guides to the candidate by DRAC shall be final and binding to all concerned. If the candidate does not join and register for pre-Ph.D. course work after admission without any valid reason, he/she shall forfeit the admission.
- 4.10 The University shall maintain/display the list of all the candidates registered for the pre-Ph.D course work on its website session-wise for the academic year. The list shall include the name of the candidate, the topic of his/her research, the name of his/her Guide, Co-Guide (if any) pre-Ph.D. coursework registration number and date.
- 4.11 No candidate shall be allowed to register simultaneously for any other degree/diploma programme after registering for Ph.D. If, at any point in time, it is found to be otherwise, his/her admission shall ipso facto stand cancelled, and all the fees and deposits paid by the candidate shall stand forfeited. The University shall take legal and/or disciplinary action or both, as it may deem fit, in such cases.
- 4.12 After full-time registration, if a candidate is employed full-time anywhere, his/her registration will be converted to part-time scholar through the recommendation of DRAC.
- 4.13 A part-time scholar may be converted to a full-time scholar; however, he/she shall be allowed to submit Synopsis/Thesis as per the rules for a part-time scholar.
- 4.14 A full-time teacher of this University, or a constituent college of this University, who registers himself/herself for Ph.D. in a University P. G. Department, shall not be required to pay tuition fees for a period of eight terms/semesters. In case he/she needs more time to complete his/her Ph.D. thesis he/she has to pay fees as per the University rules.

R. Ph.D. 5. Special Provisions for Admissions for Select Groups:

A. International Scholars

- 5.1 International scholars shall be exempted from taking the Ph.D. Entrance Test as they cannot be admitted without a valid Research Visa endorsed in favour of a given University as per the guidelines issued by the Government of India. The admission letter issued by a given University forms the basis for our embassy/high commission abroad to issue them a valid Research Visa endorsed in favour of such a university for the entire duration of their Ph.D. Programme. It applies also to international students possessing a foreign passport who has obtained a Master's degree from any of the UGC-recognized Indian Universities.
- 5.2 Any recognized Ph.D. Guide in the subject discipline in which an International Scholar has applied for admission shall be allowed to take 02 International Scholars in addition to the prescribed number of scholars in R. Ph.D. 7.3 and as per 7.1.1
- 5.3 No International Scholar offered admission to Ph.D. programme at Sardar Patel University shall be admitted unless he/she has a Research Visa endorsed in favour of this University.
- 5.4 An International Scholar admitted and registered for the pre-Ph D course work as a part-time scholar in this University who does not reside on the campus shall be required to stay on the campus for at least three months in parts: to complete the process of admission, and to attend the course work during the first year of admission. However if a candidate is unable to attend the course work offline due to technical reasons, then as a special case the candidate may be allowed to attend the course work online on an application citing the reasons with a permission of the Hon. Vice Chancellor. After registration to the Ph D programme, the candidate shall be required to stay on campus for at least a month every year to fulfil other requirements outlined in these rules. Before submitting the thesis the candidate shall present the work done through a seminar (in English with no language translator) before the DRAC. The research scholar's Guide and the Department concerned shall keep a record of his/her attendance and submit the same to the University from time to time.

- 5.5 International Students admitted through ICCR, Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India are allowed to register for the course without waiting for the payment of fees by ICCR as such payments are done at the end of the respective financial year.

Except for the special provisions made for the admission of International Scholars, all the other rules applicable to Ph.D. Scholars of this University shall also apply to International Scholars.

B. Professionals/Civil Servants:

- 5.6 In the case of Professionals from corporate bodies/scientists from National level research institutes funded by Govt. of India or State Govt./civil servant with a minimum of 5 years' experience and at least one publication in a refereed journal with ISSN /books with ISBN, shall be exempted from the Ph.D. Entrance Test.
- 5.7 The interview during the counselling for admission to Ph.D. programme shall consist of submission of a research proposal in the area of the research interest and the presentation of the same before DRAC at the time of counselling interview.

R. Ph.D. 6. Rate of Honorarium:

- 6.1 The honorarium shall be as follows: (i) Paper setting along with solutions: Rs. 2000/- for each paper setter; and (ii) Honorarium for assessment, coordinator, senior and junior supervisors and the other secretarial work etc. shall be as per the prevailing rules governing the University examinations. However, the University shall revise scale of the honorarium from time to time.
- 6.2 Experts invited from outside Sardar Patel University on various Committees related to the Ph.D. admission, and DRAC meetings and to grant recognition to teachers as Ph.D. Guides will be paid Rs. 2000/- as a sitting allowance and TA/DA as per the University rules.

R. Ph.D. 7. Allocation of Ph.D. Guides:

- 7.1 The DRAC in the concerned subject shall, in a formal manner, decide on the allotment of a Ph.D. Guide for each of the selected research scholars, depending on the number of scholars per Ph.D. Guide, the available specializations with the Ph.D. Guides, and the research interest of the research scholar as indicated by his/her during counselling-cum-interview session. The allotment of a Ph.D. Guide shall, in no case, be left to the individual scholar or the guide.
- 7.1.1 At the time of counselling for Ph.D. admission, preference shall be given to a Ph.D. Guide, who has proven research experience through at least two research publications of repute / having applied for research projects (minor/major) during the preceding three years of the current admission, to have an allotment of a Ph.D. student under his/her guide ship.

While allotting the guides, it may be observed that at any session of the admission, a professor is expected to have a minimum of three students, an Associate Professor is expected to have two students and an Assistant Professor is expected to have at least one student working under their guideship.

Adjunct Faculty members/Professor of Practice may act as Research Supervisors. In such a case, a faculty member from the relevant field shall be chosen as a co-supervisor.

The decision of the DRAC shall be binding to all concerned.

- 7.2 In case of topics of inter-disciplinary nature where the Department concerned feels that the expertise in the Department has to be supplemented from outside, the Department may appoint a Research Guide from the Department itself, who shall be known as the Research Guide, and a Co-Guide from outside the Department/Faculty/College/Research Institutions on such terms and conditions as may be specified and agreed upon by the consenting Institutions/Colleges. Co- Guide from outside the University may be appointed provided he/she fulfils all the terms and conditions set for Ph.D. Guide of this University after obtaining the approval of the University.
- 7.3 A Ph.D. Guide who is a Professor shall not guide more than eight (8) Ph.D. scholars; an Associate Professor shall not guide more than six (6) Ph.D. scholars; and an Assistant Professor shall not guide more than four (4) Ph.D. scholars at any given point of time.
- 7.4 A seat shall be considered to be vacant only after a registered research scholar submits his/her Synopsis for Ph.D.
- 7.5 The DRAC concerned shall take a binding from every Research Guide of the University, during the counselling for admission, that the candidate allotted for the Ph.D. guidance is not a close family relative.
- 7.6. If a Ph.D. Guide leaves the College/P. G. Centres/ research institutions, the Ph.D. Scholar shall be transferred to another Ph.D. guide in the relevant subject discipline of the same College/P. G. Centres/ research institutions. If there is no Ph.D. guide available in the subject concerned in that institution, the DRAC shall transfer the scholar to a guide in the University P. G. Department/another college/Institution. Such a transferred scholar shall be counted as supernumerary over the total allowed number of Ph D students of the respective category. The issues related to the fee structure in such cases shall be resolved in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor.
- 7.7. If a Ph.D. Guide leaves the college and joins the University P. G. Department/another college/P. G. centre/Institution recognized as per R Ph D 15.3 by the University, the transfer of the scholar to another Ph.D. guide is not required. However, the student shall be transferred to the Guide's present institution on request by the student and guide and recommended by the concerned DRAC. The DRAC's decision on such cases and the issues related to the fee structure shall be approved and resolved by the Vice Chancellor.
- 7.8 No Ph.D. student shall be allowed to register/transfer under a Ph.D. Guide who is having less than three years to his/her superannuation. However, he/she can continue to be a co-Guide.
- 7.9 In case a Ph.D. Guide leaves the University/College/P. G. Centre/Institution due to superannuation/resignation, a research student registered under him/her shall be transferred, through the DRAC, to another Ph.D. guide preferably in the same subject having the same specialization if the scholar does not submit his/her synopsis within six months from the date of the original guide's departure. However, the original guide shall be allowed to continue as co-guide until the Ph.D. Scholar submits his/her thesis for the Ph.D. degree.

- 7.10 The University shall, on the recommendation of the DRAC, transfer the scholars registered under a Ph.D. Guide to another Ph.D. Guide in the same subject discipline within six months if the original Ph.D. Guide is unable to guide due to unavoidable circumstances.
- 7.11 In case of relocation of a female Ph.D. scholar due to marriage or otherwise, the research data shall be allowed to be transferred to the Higher Educational Institution to which the scholar intends to relocate, provided all the other conditions in these Regulations are followed, and the research work does not pertain to a project sanctioned to the parent Institution/Supervisor by any funding agency. Such a scholar shall, however, give due credit to the parent institution and the supervisor for the part of the research already undertaken.

R. Ph.D. 8. Matters Related to Fee:

- 8.1 A research scholar admitted to any of the Ph.D. Programmes in the University shall pay the fee as decided by the University from time to time. Failure to pay the fee for three consecutive terms shall lead to automatic cancellation of Ph D registration.
- 8.2 A registered Research Scholar shall submit his/her thesis within the stipulated time, failing which he/she has to take an extension as per R Ph.D. 3 and he/she shall be required to pay fees up to the time he/she submits his/her thesis along with penalty fee decided by the University as per rules.

- 9.8 In case a candidate fails to clear the pre-Ph.D. coursework as per R Ph D 9.6, the concerned DRAC shall allow the candidate to register for a supplementary exam of those papers of the pre-Ph.D. coursework based on a request letter forwarded through and recommended by the guide. On further failure in clearing the course work, his/her Ph.D. admission stands cancelled automatically.

Such candidates (those who wish to re-join the Ph.D. programme of the University) have to follow the admission procedure as per R Ph D 4.
- 9.9 All Ph.D. scholars, irrespective of discipline, shall be required to train in teaching /education /pedagogy/writing related to their chosen Ph.D. subject during their doctoral period. Ph.D. scholars may also be assigned 4-6 hours per week of teaching/research assistantship for conducting tutorial or laboratory work and evaluations.

R. Ph.D. 10. The Departmental Research Advisory Committee (DRAC) and its Functions:

- 10.1 The Departmental Research Advisory Committee (DRAC) shall be constituted by the Head of a University P. G. Department as chairperson and consist of at least three senior members from the University P. G. Department in the subject-discipline concerned wherein all the members of the committee have to be recognized Ph.D. Guides and active researchers. External subject expert/s nominated by the Vice-Chancellor may be invited to the DRAC as and when required.
- 10.2 In case of recognized Research Institutes/Colleges/P. G. Centres affiliated to this University which runs exclusively certain programmes not offered in any of the P. G. Departments of the University, the DRAC shall be constituted by the Vice Chancellor consisting of (a) The dean of the concerned faculty (Chairman of the committee); (b) three senior faculty members in the subject concerned and (c) two Heads of the University P. G. Departments.

10.3 The DRAC shall have the following responsibilities:

- (i) To admit qualified students and to allot research guides;
- (ii) To review the research proposals and advice to fine-tune the research proposal;
- (iii) To facilitate the research scholar to develop the study design and methodology of research and help to identify/select the course(s) that he/she needs to do;
- (iv) To conduct and evaluate the respective Ph.D. course work and submit the course work (paper-wise) results of the registered students to the University;
- (v) To review the progress of the research scholars periodically and assist in the progress of the research work of the research scholar.
- (vi) To permit necessary changes, before the submission of the synopsis, in the title of the thesis after the due presentation/justification by the research scholar which must also be approved by the Ph.D. Guide,
- (vi) To invite the concerned guide(s) during the progress report presentation.
- (vii) To implement and monitor the execution of R. Ph.D. rules and regulations in letter and spirit.
- (viii) To make sure that all the theses, recommended by DRAC for its final submission to the University for Evaluation, are within the allowed limit of the similarity index as per the regulations for academic integrity and prevention of plagiarism policy updated from time to time by the University.

10.4 If a scholar is scheduled to make a presentation before the committee on issues related to his/her course work or progress or any other matter related to Ph D work, his/her Ph.D. guide shall be invited if the Committee desires during the time of presentation.

R. Ph.D. 11. Post-Admission Procedures:

- 11.1 Upon satisfactory completion of course work and registration for Ph.D., the Research Scholar shall be required to produce a draft thesis as per R.Ph.D.-3.
- 11.2 A research scholar shall appear before the DRAC once in six months to make a presentation of the progress of his/her work for evaluation and further guidance. The six-monthly progress reports shall be submitted to the University as per the guidelines received from time to time.
- 11.3 In case the progress of the research scholar is unsatisfactory, the DRAC shall record the reasons for the same and suggest corrective measures in consultation with the respective guide. If the research scholar fails to implement these corrective measures within the next term, the DRAC may recommend to the University specific reasons for the cancellation of the registration of the research scholar.
- 11.4 In case of relocation of a Ph.D. woman scholar due to marriage or otherwise, the research data generated or collected by the candidate shall be allowed to be transferred to the University to which the scholar intends to relocate on the mutual agreement signed by the respective guides and endorsed by the concerned heads of the two institutes, provided all the other conditions of these regulations are followed in letter and spirit and the research work does not pertain to the project secured by the parent Institutions/Guide from any funding agency. The scholar will, however, give due credit to the parent Guide and the Institute for the part of the research work already done and the IPR related to the part of the research data shall be owned by the original institute.

R. Ph.D. 12. Submission of Thesis:

- 12.1 The Ph.D. scholar must have at least One (01) research paper (published/ accepted for publication) from the Ph.D. work carried out, in the journal included in the UGC CARE list and also made two paper presentations in conferences/seminars based on his/her Ph.D. work and the relevant evidence (presentation certificates and/or reprints) to be produced before the submission of the thesis for adjudication.
- 12.2 Prior to the submission of the thesis, the scholar shall make a presentation of the work to be included in his/her thesis before the DRAC which shall also be open to all faculty members and other research scholars. The feedback and comments obtained from them may be suitably incorporated into the draft thesis in consultation with the DRAC.
- 12.3 If a Research Scholar has submitted his/her synopsis, but fails to submit his/her thesis within the maximum stipulated time of one year, then he/she shall apply through the respective guide to the University along with an undertaking in the format prescribed by the University. The University then may direct the concerned DRAC to consider it and take appropriate decision with due justification and recommend for just a single term extension. This shall be approved by the Vice-Chancellor.
- 12.4 Ph.D. scholars shall write their theses in English only, except those who are registered for Ph.D. in Gujarati, Hindi or Sanskrit. In addition, in the subjects like History, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, Economics and Education writing of a thesis in Gujarati/Hindi may be permitted by Honourable Vice-Chancellor on the recommendation of the DRAC in the concerned subject. However, the thesis written in languages other than English shall necessarily include a summary of the thesis in English.
- 12.5 The thesis shall contain the certificate of originality as given in Annexure – I.
- 12.6 The thesis shall be put through a plagiarism/similarity detection tool and if the similarity index falls above 10% the report shall be put before the respective DAIP for follow-up action to ensure that the draft thesis similarity index falls within the allowed limit i.e. 10% before recommending the draft thesis for submission. In case, any further action is required, the similarity report shall be put before the UAIP.
The necessary certificates mentioned in the Guidelines on Plagiarism (Annexure-II to Annexure - V) shall be submitted along with the draft thesis (as a part of the checklist). A copy of Annexure II and the plagiarism report generated by the similarity detection tool shall be included in the thesis. The policy for plagiarism will be followed as per the University Regulations for Academic Integrity and Prevention of Plagiarism as given in Appendix – II.
- 12.7 A Ph.D. Scholar shall submit two copies of the draft thesis to the University within the prescribed time limit for evaluation along with the soft-copy of the draft thesis via mail (phd_exam@spuvvn.edu) to the Academic Section. E-copy of the thesis may be sent to the referee for evaluation, if so requested. The draft shall be printed on both sides of the paper and can be submitted in kachcha-bound form so that the changes/modifications suggested by the referees can be incorporated before submitting the hard-bound copies of the thesis.
Two hard bound copies of the thesis printed on both sides of the paper along with a soft copy for electronic depository on the INFLIBNET shall be submitted after the successful Viva-voce examination. The University shall issue the notification of the award of Ph.D. only after the receipt of hard-bound copies along with the soft copy.
- 12.8 The degree of Ph.D. shall not be conferred as an addendum degree.

R. Ph.D. 13. Evaluation and Assessment Methods:

13.1 A panel of at least six referees (three from other Universities within the State and other three from outside the State or foreign countries) shall be submitted by the Ph.D. Guide to the Board of Studies in the respective subject for its approval. Vice Chancellor will select two external referees (one from the State and one from outside the State) from the panel. The referees shall examine the thesis and submit an individual report on whether there is a prima facie case for the acceptance or rejection of the thesis.

In case, the Thesis is written in Gujarati, the Board of Studies may recommend giving a panel of all six referees from Gujarat State.

13.2 The Ph.D. Thesis submitted by a research scholar shall be evaluated by his/her Ph.D. Guide and at least two external referees as R. Ph.D. 13.1 above.

13.3 If both the external referees consider the thesis unsuitable for the award of the degree, no further process shall be done and the reports shall be placed before the Vice Chancellor for final decision.

13.4 In case of a difference of opinion between the two external referees, the Vice Chancellor shall appoint a third external referee from the panel of referees of the thesis. If the third external referee reports that the thesis is unsuitable for the award of the degree, his report shall be placed before the Vice Chancellor for a final decision.

13.5 If any of the referees has suggested corrections, the candidate shall be required to incorporate them in the final draft of the thesis and need to submit a corrected version of the thesis before the viva-voce examination.

13.6 A work that has been rejected shall be resubmitted with due revision only after a period of six months and subject to the payment of necessary fees.

R. Ph.D. 14. Viva-voce Examination:

14.1 If two external referees agree that there is a prima facie case for the award of the degree, an open viva-voce examination of the Ph.D. scholar to defend the thesis shall be conducted by DRAC before a board of examiners for Ph.D. viva, consisting of the internal guide and one external referee appointed by the Vice-Chancellor. The viva-voce will be conducted in English only (even in the case of foreign students with no translator appointed) except for the students who have registered in the subjects such as Hindi, Sanskrit and Gujarati. After the open Viva, the board shall submit a report jointly to the University on whether the thesis is accepted for the award of the degree or not.

The viva-voce shall be conducted in the place decided by the University. Video recording of the process is compulsory. The soft copy of the video recording should be submitted to the University along with the report of the viva.

14.2 The schedule of viva-voce shall be notified on the departmental notice board and may be circulated to the related departments through the Head of the Department.

Regulations for Academic Integrity and Prevention of Plagiarism (AIPP) (December 2020)

To inculcate and implement strictly the ethical and moral values in the academic pursuit of students and faculty members of higher education institutions, the University Grants Commission has issued a notification through "Promotion of Academic Integrity and Prevention of Plagiarism in Higher Educational Institutions - Regulations, 2018 published in Gazette of India (REGD. NO. D. L.-33004/99). The main objectives as stated in the UGC regulations 2018 are as under:

1. Objectives

- 1.1 To create awareness about the responsible conduct of research, thesis/dissertation preparations, promotion of academic integrity and prevention of misconduct including plagiarism (similarity) in academic writing among students, faculty, researcher and staff.
- 1.2 To establish an institutional mechanism through education and training to facilitate responsible conduct of research, thesis/dissertation writing and reporting, promotion of academic integrity and deterrence from plagiarism.
- 1.3 To develop systems to detect plagiarism and to set up mechanisms to prevent plagiarism and punish student, faculty researcher or staff of the higher education institution committing the act of plagiarism.

In compliance with these Regulations, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar has in principle agreed to adopt the regulations by establishing mechanisms as prescribed in these regulations, to enhance awareness about the responsible conduct of research and academic activities, to promote academic integrity and to prevent plagiarism.

2. Definition of Plagiarism

'Plagiarism' is the unacknowledged use of another person's work as one's (their) own work. It involves copying phrases, clauses, sentences paragraphs or longer extracts, data and figures from published or unpublished work including those from other sources and own published works without acknowledgement of the source.

3. Instances of Plagiarism

- 3.1 Copying directly another person's original idea, abstract, phrases, data, illustrations, tables, conclusions etc. without permission/acknowledgement of the sources.
- 3.2 Copying a section of the book/article/report / monograph/dissertation/thesis without proper citation.
- 3.3 Buying, stealing or borrowing assignments, experiments/results, cutting and pasting from online sources and submitting as one's (their) own without necessary permission and /or attribution.

4. Self Plagiarism (as per UGC notification N F 1-1/2020 (SECY) 20th April 2020

Reproduction, in part or whole of one's own previously, published work without adequate citation and proper acknowledgement and claiming the most recent work as new and original for any academic advantage amounts to 'text-recycling' also known as self-plagiarism and is not acceptable.

Self Plagiarism includes:

- 4.1 Republishing the same paper already published elsewhere without due and full citation.
- 4.2 Publishing smaller/excerpted work from a longer and previously published work without due and full citations to show a larger number of publications.
- 4.3 Reusing data already used in a published work or communicated for publication in another work without due and full citation.
- 4.4 Breaking up a longer /larger study into smaller sections and publishing them as altogether new work without due and full citation.
- 4.5 Paraphrasing one's own previously published work without due and full citation of the original.

5. Mechanisms to Implement the Regulations

5.1 Formation of Departmental Academic Integrity Panel (DAIP)

The Departmental Academic Integrity Panel (DAIP) as per the UGC regulations shall be constituted as per the following composition.

- a. Chairman- Head of the Department
- b. Member- Senior academician from outside the department, to be nominated by the Vice Chancellor of the University.
- c. Member- A person well versed with anti-plagiarism tools, to be nominated by the Head of the Department.

The tenure of the members in respect of 'b' and 'c' as above shall be two years. The quorum for the meetings shall be 2 out of 3 members (including the Chairman).

5.1.1 Role of DAIP

- i. The DAIP shall follow the principles of natural justice while deciding about the allegation of plagiarism against the student, faculty, researcher and staff of the University.
- ii. The DAIP shall have the power to assess the level of plagiarism and recommend penalty(ies) accordingly.
- iii. The DAIP can co-opt a faculty member from the Department who is familiar with the subject area for which the plagiarism report is under consideration.
- iv. The DAIP after investigation shall submit its report with the recommendation on penalties to be imposed to the UAIP within a period of 45 days from the date of receipt of the complaint initiation of the proceedings.
- v. If any member of the academic community suspects with appropriate proof that a case of plagiarism has happened in any document pertaining to a Department, he or she shall report it to the concerned Departmental Academic Integrity Panel (DAIP). Upon receipt of such a complaint or allegation, the DAIP shall investigate the matter and submit its recommendations to the UAIP.

5.2 Formation of the University Academic Integrity Panel (UAIP)

The University Academic Integrity Panel (UAIP) as per the UGC regulation, shall be constituted as per the following composition.

- a. Chairman – Vice Chancellor/Dean /Senior Academician of the University.
- b. Member - Senior Academician other than Chairman, to be nominated by the Vice Chancellor of the University.
- c. Member - One member nominated by the Vice Chancellor from outside the University.
- d. Member - A person well versed with anti-plagiarism tools, to be nominated by the Vice Chancellor of the University.

The Chairman of DAIP and UAIP shall not be the same. The tenure of the Committee members including the Chairman shall be three years. The quorum for the meetings shall be 3 out of 4 members (including the Chairman).

5.2.1 Role of UAIP

- i. The UAIP shall consider the recommendations of DAIP.
- ii. The UAIP shall also investigate cases of plagiarism as per the provisions mentioned in these regulations.
- iii. The UAIP shall follow the principles of natural justice while deciding about the allegation of plagiarism against the student, faculty, researcher and staff of the University.
- iv. The UAIP shall send the report after investigation and the recommendation on penalties to be imposed to the Vice Chancellor within a period of 45 days from the date of receipt of the recommendation of DAIP/complaint/initiation of the proceedings.
- v. The authorities of the University can also take suo moto notice of an act of plagiarism and initiate proceedings under these regulations. Similarly, proceedings can also be initiated by the University on the basis of the findings of an examiner. All such cases will be investigated by the UAIP.
- vi. The UAIP shall have the power to review the recommendations of DAIP including penalties with due justification.
- vii. The UAIP shall provide a copy of the report to the person(s) against whom the inquiry report is submitted.

6. Awareness and Training Programs:

- (a) The University shall instruct students, faculty, researcher and staff about proper attribution, seeking permission of the author wherever necessary, acknowledgement of sources compatible with the needs and specificities of disciplines and in accordance with rules, international conventions and regulations governing the source. For instance, give due credit to the original work /author(s) and provide proper citation and reference. If one needs to quote part of the text verbatim, put them in inverted commas.
- (b) The University shall conduct sensitization seminars/awareness programs every semester on responsible conduct of research, thesis, dissertation, and promotion of academic integrity and ethics in education for students, faculty, researcher and staff.

- (c) The University shall:
- i. Include the cardinal principles of academic integrity in the curricula of Undergraduate (UG)/Postgraduate (PG)/Master's degree etc. as compulsory course work/module.
 - ii. Include elements of responsible conduct of research and publication ethics as a compulsory course work/module in the pre Ph.D. course work on research methodology Research Scholars.
 - iii. Include elements of responsible conduct of research and publication ethics in Orientation and Refresher Courses organized for faculty and staff members of the University.
 - iv. Train students, faculty members, researchers and staff in using plagiarism detection tools and reference management tools.
 - v. Establish a facility equipped with modern technologies for the detection of plagiarism.
 - vi. Encourage students, faculty members, researchers and staff to register on international researcher's Registry systems.

Note: Any synopsis/Dissertation submission occurring after the date of implementation of these regulations must follow the procedure laid down in this regulation.

7. Curbing Plagiarism

- 7.1 The University shall declare and implement the technology-based mechanism using appropriate software recognized/recommended by the UGC from time to time (presently OURIGINAL) so as to ensure that documents such as thesis, dissertation, publications or any other such documents are free of plagiarism at the time of their submission.
- 7.2 The mechanism as defined at (a) above shall be made accessible to all engaged in research work including students, faculty, researcher and staff etc.
- 7.3 Every student submitting a thesis, dissertation, or any other such documents to the University shall submit an undertaking indicating that the document has been prepared by him or her and that the document is his/her original work and free of any plagiarism.
- 7.4 The undertaking shall include the fact that the document has been duly checked through a Plagiarism detection tool approved by the University.
- 7.5 The University shall develop a policy on plagiarism and get it approved by its relevant statutory bodies/authorities. The approved policy shall be placed on the homepage of the University website.
- 7.6 Each supervisor shall submit a certificate indicating that the work done by the researcher under her/him is plagiarism free.
- 7.7 The University shall submit to INFLIBNET soft copies of dissertations/theses of all Masters', and Research programmes within a month after the award of degrees for hosting in the digital repository under the "Shodh Ganga e-repository".
- 7.8 The University shall create an Institutional Repository on the institute website which shall include dissertation/thesis / paper / publication and other in-house publications.

NOTE: In case of any need, additional plagiarism detection software may be considered with the recommendation of the UAIP.

8. Similarity checks for exclusion from Plagiarism

The similarity checks for plagiarism shall exclude the following:

- 8.1 All quoted work reproduced with all necessary permission and /or attribution.
- 8.2 All references, bibliography, table of content, preface and acknowledgements.
- 8.3 All generic terms, laws, standard symbols, common phrases and standard equations.
- 8.4 Name and address of Institutions, Departments and common mandatory phrases or sentences.

9. Similarity checks for inclusion for Plagiarism

The research work carried out by the student, faculty, researcher and staff shall be based on original ideas, which shall include abstract, objectives, hypothesis, observations, results, summary, conclusions and recommendations only and shall not have any similarities. It shall exclude common knowledge or coincidental terms, up to fourteen (14) consecutive words.

10. Procedure for submission of Documents /Scripts for Plagiarism check

The documents/Scripts include research paper, thesis, dissertation, chapters in books, full-fledged books and any other similar work, submitted for assessment/opinion leading to the award of master's and research-level degrees or publication in print or electronic media by students or faculty or researcher or staff of the University; however, this shall exclude assignments/term papers/project reports/course work/ Essays and answer scripts etc.

- 10.1 A soft copy of the different components/sections as mentioned in the list for inclusion for similarity checks must be submitted prior to the final submission.
- 10.2 It shall run through a UGC-recognized/recommended plagiarism detection software (PDS: Presently URKUND) as per 7.1. The report generated shall be submitted to the chairman, DAIP for follow-up action.

11. Levels of Plagiarism

Plagiarism would be quantified into the following levels in ascending order of severity for the purpose of its definition:

- 11.1 Level 0: Similarities up to 10% - Minor similarities, no penalty
