Information security is provided on each node by installing centrally admixture Antivirus solution (the University has already used McaFee, Trendmicro and Quick Heal Antivirus Solution). For network security, Cyberoam (an appliance for network security) is installed. A uniform IT policy is devised on the usage of websites in the entire university and Internet speed on each node in the network. Appropriate backup infrastructure is developed at the Computer Centre to avoid loss of data in unforeseen circumstances. Laptops, Desktops, printers and scanners are provided to almost all the faculty members and state-of-the-art computer laboratories are established in many departments with 24x7 Internet facilities. University is member of NKN through NMEICT project. 1 GBPS Internet connectivity is given by NKN (National Knowledge Network) to the University. Bandwidth is given by BSNL under NME-ICT project by NKN. University gets 1GBPS line under NMEICT project from NIC which provides 100 Mbps download speed and 50 Mbps upload speed. 2 Mbps speed is provided to individual user. Using LAN (Local Area Network), 480 nodes are connected to serve the Internet facility. Remote departments get Internet connectivity through Fibre Optics line. The university is a member of INFLIBNET (Information and Library Network, URL:http://www.inflibnet.ac.in/), DELNET (Developing Library Network, URL:http://www.delnet.nic.in/) and Shodhganga (URL:http://shodhganga.inflibnet.ac.in/). This facility is routed through the Internet to all stakeholders. By this way e-resources are fully utilized.

5. Student Support and Progression

5.1   Contribution of IQAC in enhancing awareness about Student Support Services

We are a rural university and our student population demographically comes largely from rural areas, with a significant number of them commuting between surrounding villages and Vallabh Vidyanagar. This localized nature of students profile is an outcome of Policy of the Government of Gujarat which stipulates that 87% seats in the grant-in-aid institutions be reserved for students of the same university, compatible with general reservation policy of the Government on the one hand, and an indicator of rural regeneration through education in progress on the other. It is aimed particularly at underprivileged/disadvantaged classes of society like SC/ST/OBC and women. However, for little more than last decade, this localized nature of student profile is getting significantly counter-balanced by those from cosmopolitan background being added due to students getting admitted to Self-financed programmes and various UGC-funded schemes like SAP-DRS which mandate a 20% student intake from outside the state. High Quality of education, need-based specialized contemporary programmes and a highly professional work culture in self-financed institutes and programmes leads to a large number of students from all over the country getting attracted to these programmes. This has apparently brought about a semblance of balance in our student profile.

SEAT ALLOCATION FOR VARIOUS CATEGORIES

Category-I : Under SAP/CAS/COSIST/IP

   As per the UGC, New Delhi norms, it is required to make provision for at least 20% of seats for admissions in the PG Courses in the Departments under Special Assistance Programme for students belonging to Universities of other states, and the suggestion of the Peer Team from NAAC on its visit in December 2000 that more seats be allocated to students from outside the states, the allocation of seats for all courses shall be as follows:

Students of Sardar Patel University (on merit)	70%
Students of other Universities in the State of Gujarat (on merit)	10%
Students belonging to Universities of other states (on merit)	20%

Category-II : Not Covered Under SAP/CAS/COSIST/IP etc of the UGC

Students of other Universities in the State of Gujarat (on merit)	10%
Students belonging to Universities of other states (on merit)	03%

- The reservation criteria governing all admissions for candidate belonging to Scheduled Caste (SC), Scheduled Tribes (ST), Socially and Economically Backward Classes

Annexure-I

Best Practice - I

Title of the Practice:

Promotion of Research through SEED grant and establishment of interdisciplinary research centres

Objectives of the Practice:

1. To inculcate and develop a research culture among teachers and students of the University
2. To encourage and facilitate the teachers for undertaking minor and major research projects from UGC and various other funding agencies
3. To increase awareness and benefits of interdisciplinary research in basic sciences, humanities and social sciences
4. To facilitate interaction among researchers of different disciplines through establishment of interdisciplinary research centres

The Context:

The University teachers appointed as Assistant or Associate Professors though may have very good research and innovative ideas, are constraint with funding to implement and experiment on their ideas. Provided some start-up grant, they will be able to go ahead with and pursue their ideas giving them results which may provide a platform to them for establishing their long and bright research career benefiting the University. They may be hesitating in approaching the national agencies for the funds and if such an opportunity is provided to them in form of SEED grant at their home institute, they will be able to carry out and initiate their research with confidence. With the result achieved, they may be able to convince the national or other funding agencies to finance their research projects considering the future prospects.

A multidisciplinary approach to study and research has now become a demand of the time as a result of the levels at which the contemporary advancement of knowledge in different disciplines have reached. Consequently the university is establishing the CISST for promotion for Interdisciplinary Studies and Research in Science and Technology, in particular, for the implementation of the PURSE Programme. The centre is expected to provide a platform for design and implementation of teaching and research programmes of interdisciplinary nature.

The Practice:

The University organizes workshops with an emphasis on interdisciplinary research themes where researchers across the University as well as experts from medical and agricultural faculties from collaborating institutions are invited for brainstorming on prospective interdisciplinary research areas.

The University also organizes joint workshops with Knowledge Consortium of Gujarat, Government of Gujarat for the University and affiliated college teachers of basic sciences, home science, management, commerce, humanities and social sciences disciplines for preparation of research proposal which are discussed and finalized with the experts in the subject area as mentors for onward submission to various funding agencies.

The University, for its young faculty members, provides SEED grant as start-up resource to initiate in the research area of their subject as basic research or area of interdisciplinary research. For the purpose of allocation of SEED grant, research proposals are selected on the following considerations:

- Objective, methodology and outcomes of the research project proposal
- Teachers in the cadre of Assistant or Associate Professor are given preference
- Teachers not having any minor or major research project are given priority
- The fund of ₹25,00,000 is earmarked for the purpose from the University's own resources
- The scrutinized research proposals are presented and a grant up to ₹1,00,000 p.a. per research proposal is sanctioned.

The University has established Centre for Interdisciplinary Studies in Science and Technology (CISST) which houses central experimental facilities, consisting of the equipments under the DST-PURSE so as to facilitate and promote interdisciplinary research and academic activities.

A committee consisting of the retired Vice-Chancellors has been constituted to consider the possibility of establishment of the centre, promoting interdisciplinary research and academic activities especially for humanities and social sciences. Considering their positive response, the University is going to establish a similar centre in line of the CISST for social sciences.

Evidence of Success:

1. 10 Interdisciplinary Research projects have been initiated to promote interdisciplinary research collaboration.
2. The research projects completed with the help of SEED grant have been proposed and approved by various national funding agencies.
3. Faculties are also allowed to utilize the SEED grant for attending the seminars and conferences (TA/DA and registration fees).
4. CISST has started functioning with research facilities established from DST-PURSE grant equipments catering the need of basic sciences and interdisciplinary research. The approach of housing and establishing such common facilities for interdisciplinary research haven been appreciated and considered "excellent" by DST, Government of India.
5. Three teaching and research programmes have been identified after successive rounds of brainstorming session which are
    a. Biomedical science and technology
    b. Defence science and technology
    c. Earth science system

    These programmes are run by CISST with the help of the faculty members of the University departments having expertise in the area and other invited faculty members institutions like PRL, ISRO and The M. S. University of Baroda and others. Considering the importance of the proposed research and training areas in the present scenario, government of Gujarat has also sanctioned the teaching posts which will help us in recruiting the expert faculties in these areas.

6. Considering the future prospects of research and development in the proposed programmes of CISST, Donors have generously donated ₹2,00,00,000 for construction of a new CISST building.

7. On receiving favourable reports and encouraging remarks and suggestions from the Vice-Chancellors' committee, the University has announced for the establishment of Center for Interdisciplinary Studies in Humanities and Social Sciences in line of CISST. Donors have also agreed to donate generously ₹1,00,00,000 for establishment of infrastructural facilities for the proposed centre.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

1. Since the M.Sc. Programme are innovative, new and yet to be published among prospective students and employers; we at present are getting only a couple of students to begin with. However, it is hopeful that these programmes will pick up the interest of the students in coming future and we have already initiated awareness campaign about the job and research opportunities in the chosen areas.

2. More specialized faculties especially in the chose areas are required for handling advanced level topics and also guiding the students for Projects and Ph.D.

3. Similarly, more specialized equipments are to be purchased for practical training of the students.

Best Practice – II

Title of the Practice:

Fund Management

Objectives of the Practice:

1. To generate the fund for the development of research and infrastructural facilities
2. To make optimum utilization of fund
3. To make fruitful investment of ideal fund

The Context:

Due to revision of pattern for fixation of the yearly maintenance grant from vide GR dated 01-04-1997 by education department, government of Gujarat; reimbursement of the loss was not possible for the purpose and calculating the maintenance grants of the University under the head "examination" and an additional income generated through different sources i.e. donation, increase of fees except tuition fees etc. shall not be considered as the income of the University for the purpose of calculating maintenance grant of the University. In this line, the University has also started creation of funds to facilitate and promote research activities, to develop infrastructural facilities, to meet staff deficit and fund deficit from various funding agencies. Under a single umbrella of Corpus fund, various funds out of surplus of the respective budget heads such as Self Finance courses Funds, Funds from external courses, Examination Development funds, Library fund, Personal proficiency development fund have been created. Even surplus of corpus funds is strategically invested to get fruitful returns.

The Practice:

Creation and utilization of funds

1. Central Development Fund: Out of surplus of tuition fees of self finance incomes, 30% of the surplus is utilized for creation of Central Development Fund for the purpose of development of research activities and infrastructural facilities.
2. Department Development fund: In the line of Central development fund, Out of surplus of tuition fees of self finance incomes, 30% of the surplus is utilized for creation of Department Development Fund for the purpose of development of research activities and infrastructural facilities at the departmental level.
3. Surplus from External courses: the University runs UG and PG level external courses. Surplus from the income from external courses is transferred to the University corpus fund which is utilized for the development of teaching, research and extension activities.
4. Personal Proficiency Development Fund (PPDF): The University has created Personal Proficiency Development Fund out of Overhead Budget of the various research schemes granted by the different funding agencies with a view to meet

Moreover, the University provides financial assistance to the Departments and supporting services for the addition, alteration and renovation of the existing buildings, purchase of scientific equipments and development of other infrastructural facilities.

Investment

Surplus of corpus fund is strategically invested both as long term investment i.e. for 5 years and as short term investment i.e. for 1 year. The long term investment can be made in either 8% Government Taxable Bonds or in 6.5% Non-taxable bonds. As the University income is exempted under section 10 (23) (c) of the Income-tax Act, 1961, the University makes investment in the first option. With a view to manage liquidity, some of the ideal fund can be invested with the banks as short term investment in Fixed Deposit for 1 year. For the purpose, banks are approached to provide the maturity value of the fund to be invested. On the receipt of the maturity value, comparative statement of maximum rate with maturity value is prepared and the banks' representatives are invited for the negotiation and then the bank with the highest rate of interest and the maturity value is given the deposit for the period of 1 year.

7. MoU with Guj Info Petro Limited has been made to make student cycle online (admission to award of degree) with the help of the fund. Human Resource module and Inventory software have been developed and introduced for smooth functioning of the University administration.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

2. Over a period of time, accumulated deficit has increased against which government has not sanctioned even ad-hoc grant to reduce the accumulated deficit.
3. Non-adjustment of funds received under planned and unplanned schemes despite of submission of report and utilization certificate in due course.
