Notes

1. These fees are applicable only in case of ICCR-Sponsored international students or those international students coming here under various other scholarships.
2. Self-financed colleges running various Programmes have their own fee structure, and tuition and other fees for these programmes will have to be paid to them directly. The International Students Centre shall, in no case, involve itself in this part of the admission process.

3. Students who seek admission to Programmes run in colleges affiliated to this university are required to apply through the International Students Centre, and pay to the university a fee of $835 over and above the fee charged for the programme that they might have applied for.
4. The fees are liable to revision without notice and students will need to pay the revised fee as and when applicable.
