Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar was not only the father of the Indian constitution; he was a philosopher, thinker, economist, editor, social reformer, revivalist of Buddhism and was the First Indian to break down the barriers in the way of advancement of women in India. Dr. B.R. Ambedkar is the chief sources of inspiration to the people of India especially the vast toiling and suffering masses. His ideas, principles and actions continue to have relevance as the contradictions in social and economical life persist even today.

Dr. B.R. Ambedkar was mission for his whole life had been to bring equality in the society and to end all discrimination based on caste, race, religion and sex, could not remain silent on the issue of equal status for women. He had very progressive thoughts for bringing equality among all humans including women. Dr. B.R Ambedkar fights against the knowledge exploitation and injustice which are social forms of violence of such oppressions Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar endeavored to set essential everlasting human values such as equality, liberty, fraternity and social justice in Indian society. Fundamental ideas and values of his Life have become the fountain of inspiration self respect, self confidence, rationality and practical humanism. Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar wanted to create a new India, a strong united India, free from the burden of history of hatred and exploitation.

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's mission in life was to challenge the ideological foundations of graded system of caste hierarchy that denied equality, freedom and human dignity to women in Hindu society. He believed that society should be based on reason, and not on atrocious tradition of caste system. Therefore, in order to reconstruct society. Education should be based on modern democratic ideas of liberty, equality and fraternity
