Subject: Law of Crimes Paper - II: Indian Penal Code

Objectives of the course:

The Indian Penal Code in its basic structure is a document that consists of the list of all the punishments and cases that a person who commits any kind of a crime is to be held liable and charged with. It covers any Indian citizen or a person of Indian origin. The exception to this document is that any kind of military or armed forces crimes cannot be charged on the basis of Indian Penal Code. They have a different dedicated list of laws and the Indian Penal Code cannot supersede any part of it. The curriculum outlined here attempts to bring in these new perspectives.
