

SARDAR PATEL UNIVERSITY
Programme: B.Sc (Home Science)
Semester: I
Syllabus with effect from: June-2011

Objectives:

- Introducing the students to the field of human development
- To sensitize the students to social and cultural context in human development

Theory

Paper Code: UH01CHUD09	Total Credit: 2
Title Of Paper: Introduction to Human Development

Unit	Description in detail	Weighting (%)
I	An Overview of the field What is human development Need & importance of studying human development Historical view Scope of the field of human development	10%
II	Orientation to Growth and Development Meaning and definition of growth and development Principals of development Factors affecting growth and development	15%
III	Pre-natal Development The beginning of a new life prenatal development Factors influencing prenatal development Signs of pregnancy Care of pregnant women Birth Process	15%
IV	Stages of life span Physical development across the life span and factors influencing it. Motor development and factors influencing from infancy to old age. Mental development and factors influencing it across the life span. Social development and factors influencing it across the life span. Emotional development and factors influencing it across the life span. Factors influencing from life span perspective.	10% 10% 10% 10% 10% 10%

Basic Text & Reference Books

- Mussen, P. N Conger, J.J. Kagar, J & Huston, A C(1990) Child Development & Personality(7ed) N. Y Harper Collins.
- Cole M & Cole. S (1993) : The development of children. New York: Scientific American Books.
- Hurlock “ development and psychology”
- Pappalia “ human development”
- Berk L.E. “child development” new delhi
- Craig G. “human development” N.J. Prentice Hall
- Cole M. and Cole S. “The development of Children

