

SARDAR PATEL UNIVERSITY
Programme: B.Sc (Home Science)
Semester: VI
(Human Development)
Syllabus with effect from: November/December-2013

Objectives:

To enable the students to-

- Get an opportunity for exposure to the functioning of the specific agency in the field of family and child welfare.
- Get an experience of working with specific target groups.
- Integrate classroom teaching to the field practice.

Paper Code:UH06CHUD01	Total Credit: 3
Title Of Paper: Internship in Welfare Centers

	Description in detail
	Placement Agencies Rescue Homes and Shelter Homes for Women, NGOs working for women in rural and tribal areas, SEWA, NGOs working for street children, Sponsorship agencies, old age homes.
	Procedure for evaluation or Assessment students' performance may be done on the following points: Regularity and punctuality in attendance. Ability to understand agency setting – its structure, objectives, programme contents and clientele. Ability to work in a team Ability to be sensitive to the needs of clients. Reporting. Initiative to organize any specific programme. Ability for fund raising, if required. Ability to perceive the role of child development worker in the agency.
	Expected Outcome At the end of the internship students are expected to develop realistic perspective of the agency in which they were placed identify strengths in the services and suggest suitable measures for improvement.

