Programme Outcome (PO) – For LL.M. (Constitution & Legal Order Group) Programme	About Programme: LLM in Constitutional Law and Legal Order at Sardar Patel University is Four semesters post-graduation programme is designed for those, who are interested to learn fundamental way a country is governed, for example certain legislatures are central to a country’s constitutional law, such as human rights. Constitutional law differs according to each respective nation, although the three main areas all countries usually cover are customary law, statutory law and conventions. Constitutional laws govern the relationships between the judiciary, the legislature and the executive with the bodies under its authority. LL.M. in Constitutional Law and Legal Order offers study of the relationship of different entities within a state, vies, the Executive, the Legislature and the Judiciary. Some nations don’t have constitutions as such; however, all have laws of the land that consist of various consensual and imperative rules i.e. customary law, statutory law and conventions. Human rights and civil liberties form an integral part of a nation’s constitutional laws and will play a key part in LL.M. in Constitutional Law and Legal Order Group, and comparison between the perspectives of different countries, i.e. the United States and the United Kingdom. In the United States, the law is based on the Constitution, a signed agreement setting out the basic rights of United States citizens. The three main branches of this law are: Judicial, Legislative and Executive. However, in the United Kingdom, there is no codified constitution, although there are many parliamentary laws or statutes. Both nations have things in common and their constitutional laws are grounded in history and politics.
