- 4) Appreciate the following passage and give a suitable title to it:

Broken friendship may be repaired, but the brake will always show. Friendship is a precious thing- too precious a treasure to be carelessly broken or thrown away. The world handles the word 'friend' lightly; its real true deeper meaning is forgotten, and acquaintance of an hour or the chance comer is designated by the term which in itself bears a wealth of meaning. Your friend is the one who appreciates you- your fault as well your virtues-who understands and sympathises with your defeats and victories, your aims and ideals, your joys and temptations, your hopes and disappointments, as no one else does or can. It is your friend to whom you turn for counsel, for comfort, for praise. He may not be learned as some or as wise as others, but it suffices that he understands you and even his quiet listening gives strength and renewed courage
