

No. Of Printed Pages: 2

SARDAR PATEL UNIVERSITY
SYBA (Advanced) (CBCS) Semester IV Exam 2016

SYBA (Advanced) (CBCS) Semester IV Exam 2016

Thursday, 21st April, 2016

2.30 To 4.30 p.m.

UA04EEPS03: Fields of Psychology -II

Total Marks: 60

Q.1 Multiple choice questions

15marks

- Goal setting is an effective method of controlling aggression.
 - True
 - False
- According to APA, in which year forensic psychology was considered as a new area?
 - 2002
 - 1999
 - 1998
 - 2001
- There is much enthusiasm for the idea that terrorists can be socially or psychologically profiled.
 - True
 - False
- Why is a polygraph thought to be useful to identify lies in police interviews?
 - Because it can prevent false confessions
 - Because the police are not very good at spotting lies
 - Because it speeds up the process
 - None
- Sport psychologists work with amateur and professional athletes to:
 - Improve performance and improve psychological well-being
 - Worsen performance and worsen psychological well-being
 - Improve performance and worsen psychological well-being
 - Worsen performance and improve psychological well-being.
- _____ are defined as those people who have not reach adulthood or the age of eighteen.
 - Juvenile delinquency
 - Juvenile offending
 - Adolescent
 - juveniles
- When noise creates stress it is called
 - Audio-strain
 - Noise pollution
 - Noise anxiety disorder
 - Sound contamination
- What type of motivation is not applicable to young children?
 - Intrinsic motivation
 - Extrinsic motivation
 - Achievement motivation
 - None of the above.
- Environmental stressors include air pollution and climate change, as well as:
 - Political conflict and time pressures
 - Traffic and noise
 - Unemployment and an ailing economy
 - Infection and malnutrition
- Aggression and violence among athletes is _____.
 - Reason of children participation in sport
 - Benefits of youth sport
 - Potential negative factor associated with youth sport
 - Reverse dependency trap

2. According to APA, in which year forensic psychology was considered as a new area?
a.2002 b.1999 c.1998 d.2001

3. There is much enthusiasm for the idea that terrorists can be socially or psychologically profiled.

4. Why is a polygraph thought to be useful to identify lies in police interviews?
- a. Because it can prevent false confessions
 - b. Because the police are not very good at spotting lies
 - c. Because it speeds up the process
 - d. None

5. Sport psychologists work with amateur and professional athletes to:
 - a. Improve performance and improve psychological well-being
 - b. Worsen performance and worsen psychological well-being
 - c. Improve performance and worsen psychological well-being
 - d. Worsen performance and improve psychological well-being.

6. _____ are defined as those people who have not reach adulthood or the age of eighteen.
- a. Juvenile delinquency b. Juvenile offending
- c. Adolescent d. juveniles

7. When noise creates stress it is called
- a. Audio-strain
 - b. Noise pollution
 - c. Noise anxiety disorder
 - d. Sound contamination

8. What type of motivation is not applicable to young children?
- Intrinsic motivation
 - Extrinsic motivation
 - Achievement motivation
 - None of the above.

9. Environmental stressors include air pollution and climate change, as well as:
- a. Political conflict and time pressures
 - b. Traffic and noise
 - c. Unemployment and an ailing economy
 - d. Infection and malnutrition

10. Aggression and violence among athletes is _____.
- a. Reason of children participation in sport
 - b. Benefits of youth sport
 - c. Potential negative factor associated with youth sport
 - d. Reverse dependency trap

11. The polygraph or "lie detector" primarily measures which component of emotion?
- Attribution
 - Emotional expression
 - Physiological arousal
 - Vocal modulation
12. The disease Cholera, Typhoid and Jaundice are due to pollution of _____.
- Air
 - Water
 - Food items
 - Noise
13. Urban settings are often stressful environments because:
- Of the greater police presence
 - There are too many shopping choices
 - Communities are too diverse
 - They are noisy, crowded, and more polluted
14. A sport psychologist's competencies include:
- Client welfare, professional relationships and assessment techniques
 - Confidence, frustration tolerance and networking ability
 - Emotional intelligence quotient, height and authority
 - Personality, confidence and intelligence quotient
15. _____ is designed to prevent behavior before ant signs of the behavioral pattern emerge.
- Primary prevention
 - Secondary Prevention
 - Tertiary prevention
 - Treatment based prevention

Q.2. Describe different types of environmental pollutions and its effect on health 15
OR

- Q.2. A. Expert testimony
B. Psychology of terrorism

Q.3. Define the term rehabilitation and Discuss steps of rehabilitation. 15
OR

Q.3. Discuss the role of sport psychology in improving performance of athletes and sports person.

- Q.4. Short notes. (Any two) 15
- Role of Forensic psychology
 - Causes of Juvenile Delinquency
 - Polygraph Testing
 - Crowding

← X →
(2)