Q.4 Read the following passage and answer the questions in brief: 10

The word SPORT stands for five elements-sincerity, punctuality, obedience, regularity, and tenacity. These are the most essential qualities that we need to have in our life. We can be successful in whatever we want to do only by following these principles. Sports help us to be physically fit, and only a healthy body can have healthy mind. So it has an important role in our life. There is a proverb, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." Life without any physical activity tells upon our nerves and we lose our enthusiasm. Only sports can supply the fresh vigour that we require to lead an enthusiastic life. It makes us physically fit and mentally alert. We can acquire plenty of wealth or education. But it is of little use to a person who suffers from ill-health. Physical exercise is a must. There is one word we often use – Sportsmanship. It is an attitude that refers to fair and generous behaviour towards treatment of others, especially in the field of sports. It also indicates fairness, honesty, integrity, openness of heart and frankness. The word itself indicates how virtues associated with sports are appreciated in every field of human activities. Hence, if we want to cultivate the attitude of sportsmanship we must practice certain physical activities.

Questions:

- i. What are the five elements of SPORT?
ii. Why are physical exercises important?
iii. What is the meaning of sportsmanship?
iv. How does sport help us lead an enthusiastic life?
v. Give a suitable title to the passage.
