"Hard work is the key of success. Nothing can be achieved without hard work. Work, work, ever work, is a great Panacea. Edison worked for twenty one hours a day, our beloved prime Minister late Pt. Nehru, worked for seventeen hours a day and seven days a week. There were no holidays in his calendar. Mahatma Gandhi worked ceaselessly day and night and won freedom for his country. Hard work is the price that we pay for success and all the gifts of life"

The great men, who sacrifice their lives in the service of humanity, live for ever through their actions. People continue to worship and love such great men who leave their foot-Prints on the sands of time for the posterity to follow. Among such unforgettable persons, Bhagat Singh, Raj Guru, Chander Shekhar and innumerable other martyrs who laid down their lives for India's independence, stand as brilliant luminaries. They Proved the worth of their life by kissing the gallows for their mother land. We shall always remember them with affection and gratefulness.
