- R.PG.PhD.20 : The Head of the PG Department/recognised Institute shall constitute a Research Committee consisting of the Head of the PG Department/recognised Institute concerned as the chair; three senior teachers in the subject or allied subject in the PG Department/recognised Institute, who are active researchers/research guides in the subject as members and Dean of respective faculty would be invited on this committee. The tenure of the Committee shall be three years. The names of the members of the Committee shall be communicated to the University from time to time. A meeting of the Committee shall be convened once or twice, as the case may be, after the conduct of every Ph. D. Entrance Test in the subject. All Ph. D. guides, other than the members of the Research Committee, who have vacancies available with them, shall be specially invited to attend the meetings of the Committee at the time of admission.
- R.PG.PhD.33 : Once a research student is admitted to Ph. D. programme, he/she shall be required by the University to undertake coursework consisting of components related to research methodology including quantitative methods, computer application, and review of published research in the relevant field etc for a minimum of three courses of three credits each and clear these within the first two terms/semesters from the date of registration. The Research Committee shall evaluate this coursework, maintain proper records, and take a decision on the continuance or otherwise of the research student. This course work, done in the Department/institute where the student is registered or in a sister PG Department within the university, shall be duly certified by the Research Committee in the PG Department/recognised Institute, and shall be treated as pre-Ph. D. preparation. A Ph. D. student with an MPhil degree shall stand exempted from doing such coursework.
