Minutes of the DAIP committee for the report of plagiarism

The DAIP committee met in the Department on June 10th at 11.00 a.m. to discuss upon the plagiarism report for the Ph. D. thesis submitted by Ms. Dīpa Lalvani forwarded through mail by University office. Committee considered the explanation given by the candidate and the guide regarding the content in the thesis showing the plagiarism when the thesis was run for plagiarism check. The matter was also discussed with the DRAC members of the Department.

The committee feels that the similarities shown in the report are essential part of the thesis and does not make a case of plagiarism or academic dishonesty. Hence the committee is of the opinion of allowing the student for the thesis submission for processing by the University for the evaluation.

as the most essential resource. (1) The very significant circumstance is that life is almost impossible without this simple molecule. It is a very essential constituent of the living cell protoplasm as every living organism has 55 to 78 % of the body is water. Water's importance in the human body can be divided into four distinct functions: It acts as transportation vehicle, it provides approach for many of the chemical reaction, it acts as lubricant and it has role in temperature regulation. One of the most imperative resources from five essential element is water with its three states. It is said that "Water is a liquid that provides life". The significance of water has been known to mankind since thousands of years. It is described in the Rig-Veda- the oldest Vedic Sanskrit book. Water has many functions and enormous uses in daily life. The domestic uses of water are drinking, bathing, cooking and washing. It also fulfils many household needs. In the Industrial sector, water is required for processing, transporting, washing, cooling, diluting or fabricating

Minutes of the DAIP committee for the report of plagiarism

The DAIP committee met in the Department on 11th September, 2021 at 2.00 p.m. to discuss upon the plagiarism report for the Ph. D. thesis submitted by Ms. Janki M. Trivedi forwarded through mail to me from your office. The matter was also discussed with the DRAC members of the Department.

The original report is indicating 11% similarity. As per the details given by the guide Dr. Urvish Chaya if the content considered as similarity from the published work of the student in the original report is considered as of self the revised similarity may come to 4%. Hence the committee is of the opinion of allowing the student for the thesis submission for processing by the University for the evaluation.

NOTICE FOR DAIP MEETING

Under the Regulation R. Ph.D. 12.6, the University has instructed the undersigned to call a meeting of the Members of the DAIP in the subject of English so as to discuss and decide the case of Mr. Pradipsinh B. Zala doing Ph. D. in English under the guidance of Dr. Kaushal Kotadiya, in whose thesis 20% plagiarism has been found which is not admissible as per the latest norms of the university.

Accordingly, a meeting of the DAIP is arranged on Tuesday, 15th June 2021 at 12:00 noon in the cabin of the undersigned. Since you are a member of the DAIP, I inform and request you to remain present at the time of meeting and contribute your genuine opinion on the matter.

Kindly remain present and oblige.

CLARIFICATION

The university has appointed Dr P S Popat as a member for the DAIP in the subject of English but in place of Dr P S Popat I, the undersigned, Head and Chairman of the DRAC in English have appointed Dr P J Dave to attend this meeting in place of Dr P S Popat for the reason that Dr Kaushal Kotadiya, the guide of the research candidate, happens to be the husband of Dr P S Popat and so to observe the sanctity and impartiality in a serious matter like plagiarism, it was found essential to call the senior most teacher of the Department in place of Dr P S Popat and so in her place, Dr. P J Dave has been called to attend the meeting.

MINUTES OF THE DAIP MEETING

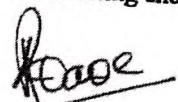

In accordance with the instruction given and power vested, the Notice was issued to the members of the DAIP for the meeting on Tuesday, 15th June 2021 to discuss and finalize the case of a PH. D.(English) Scholar Mr. Pradipsinh B. Zala in whose thesis a 20% plagiarism has been found. The following remained present at the time of the meeting:

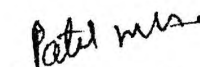

1. Shri R K Mandalia-Head, Dept. of English, SPU
2. Dr P J Dave-Dept. of English, SPU
3. Dr M G Patel-Dept. of Sanskrit, SPU
4. Dr Kaushal Kotadiya-Dept. of English, N & A Arts College, V V Nagar

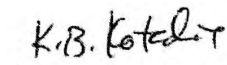

The Printed copy of the Plagiarism Report issued by the Bhaikaka Library was first shared among the members of the Committee to make the members aware of the matter. The matter of 20% plagiarism in the thesis of the candidate Mr P B Zala was discussed in detail and also how to curtail the percentage of plagiarism as no candidate is allowed to submit the thesis if the percentage of plagiarism is more than 10%. The DAIP Guideline was also shared among the members of the DAIP. The Recommendations are:

- (1) It was decided collectively that as per the guideline of the R.Ph.D. 12.6, if the plagiarism is between 10% to 40%, the candidate pleased be instructed by the guide to revise the thesis and omit those links and sites which appear again and again in the thesis and because of which the plagiarism has occurred.
- (2) It is only after the revising and necessary changes that the soft copy of the thesis be submitted again in the university library for the plagiarism check and to confirm that the plagiarism is below 10% in the thesis.
- (3) The candidate is instructed to revise the thesis by doing necessary changes under the supervision of his guide, with a complete commitment and dedication without any intention of a "short cut" and to submit the soft copy within six months.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to all the members for remaining present in the meeting.

Introduction It is extraordinary to see the rapid development of English Language Teaching and Learning (ELT&L). It has been accepted as a required or essential skills to acquire success in this world. English as a language has become the primary element of the curriculum of schools and colleges. It is studied by college students to get the best opportunities in the job or for employment. In short, it is said that this is the language which makes its learners successful as noted by Erizar, Syahputra & Hidayati (2018). Nowadays, the students must improve linguistics abilities and academic skills that involve using the English language to acquire and articulate knowledge by reading

It has been accepted as a required or essential skills to acquire success in this world. English as a language has become the primary element of the curriculum of schools and colleges. It is studied by college students to get the best opportunities in the job or for employment. In short, it is said that this is the language which makes its learners successful as noted by Erizar, Syahputra & Hidayati (2018). Nowadays, the students must improve linguistics abilities and academic skills that involve using the English language to acquire and articulate knowledge by reading
